Nine artists explore the image and document as critical sites for complicating dominant settler-colonial narratives of Canadian identity. In doing so, they demonstrate nuanced examples of what it means to "belong" on the land now known as Canada through their material (re)negotiations of the postcard, passport, scrapbook, landscape, portrait, treaty and wampum.

Artist talk with Abdi Osman: Thursday, May 26, 7 pm

Curator's talk: Saturday, May 28, 1 pm

Performance by Vanessa Dion Fletcher: Friday, July 1, 2–6 pm
